Newfoundland and Labrador

To qualify for the Occupational/Skilled Worker category, the applicant must score at least 50 points on a Self-Assessment (occupation, arranged employment, experience, education, adaptability, spousal employment, age, language ability, financial resources), and have a Newfoundland and Labrador job offer that:

Is full time and permanent;

Utilizes specialized skills that could not otherwise be obtainable in Canada; and

Is consistent with provincial employment and wage standards.

Successful applicants will receive a Newfoundland and Labrador Provincial Nomination Certificate, which will speed-up the Canada Immigration (Permanent Resident) Visa application process.
